About Sierra Expeditionary Learning School: SELS opened in the fall of 2010 as an independent public charter school serving 64 K-5 students. SELS expanded and now serves 215 students in grades K-8. SELS offers a small school environment (class sizes from 22-26) dedicated to academic excellence, diversity, and the building of character and community.

Job Description: Drawing on the principles, strategies, and resources of elementary instruction and Expeditionary Learning, classroom support will help provide intervention and instruction to students, as directed by the lead classroom teacher. May be asked to run small groups, assess student work, present small or whole group lessons, and help in whatever capacities are needed to meet the needs of the classrooms. Continual assessment and feedback on student achievement, and excellent collaboration and communication with classroom teachers is required. At times will be asked to substitute teach as well.

Must have the ability to:

- Provide literacy and math support and intervention for students
- Manage small and large groups of students in a learning environment
- Communicate effectively with students and teachers; work in tandem with lead classroom teachers; be able to substitute teach the classroom

Required Education and Experience:

- Bachelor's degree or higher in related field
- Working with students in teaching/learning settings

Preferred Education and Experience:

- Current California Multi-Subject Teaching Credential (or in-process of obtaining), or California Substitute Certificate
- Two or more years of reading/LA instruction
- Two or more years of classroom work
- Knowledge and understanding of Expeditionary Learning philosophies and strategies
