About Sierra Expeditionary Learning School: Sierra Expeditionary Learning School (SELS) is a public charter within the Tahoe Truckee Unified School District, serving 215 students in grades K-8. SELS inspires a diverse group of learners to achieve academic excellence and develop a strong sense of character and community. Curriculum is implemented through project-based expeditions and fieldwork that challenge students to think critically while also fostering their natural curiosity and love of learning.

Job Description: Drawing on the principles, strategies, and resources of middle school instruction and Expeditionary Learning, the Aide/Support Teacher will provide intervention and instruction to 6th-8th grade students, as directed by the primary classroom teachers. Continual assessment and feedback on student achievement and excellent collaboration and communication with classroom teachers is required.

Must have the ability to:

- Provide appropriate grade-level content instruction/support
- Manage/engage small groups of students
- Communicate effectively with students and teachers; work in partnership with classroom teachers

Required Education and Experience:

- Bachelor's degree or higher
- Proficiency with middle school content instruction, especially math

Preferred Education and Experience:

- Two or more years of middle school teaching experience
- Current California Multi-Subject Teaching Credential
- RTI and intervention strategies and techniques
- Knowledge and understanding of Expeditionary Learning philosophies and strategies
