Sierra Expeditionary Learning School Host 8th Grade Art Show at Moody's Bistro Bar & Beats Students Artist Exhibit Political Cartoons as Part of their Cumulative Project

Truckee, CA (May 11, 2015) – The 8th Grade Crew from Sierra Expeditionary Learning School (SELS) is hosting a student art show at Moody's Bistro Bar & Beats on Tues., June 2nd at 5 p.m. The exhibit will feature political cartoons, each telling a story about American History as perceived by teenage artists. From the Revolutionary War up to the Civil War, students learned how personal interpretations affect history.

Working alongside San Francisco artist, Veronica Lichter, 8th graders created political cartoons. Through their research on historic events from a variety of different outlets, they found that different text resources have varied pieces of information and perspectives, even if they are both accurate.

Using space donated by Moody's, this art show is the culmination of a four-month long expedition on American history.
